

ART EXHIBITION WILL OPEN TODAY.

Hugo A. Fisher's Magnificent Collection Open to Public.

ARE MAGNIFICENT SUBJECTS.

Merced River—Yosemite, a Favorite in Oil—Famous Marsh Scenes—An Artist who Paints Portraits or Rugged Mountains With Equal Ease.

The sixty-three paintings by Hugo A. Fisher now on view in the art rooms of the Pacific Hardware Company form the grandest collection, from an artistic point of view, ever seen in this country.

Mr. Fisher, though hardly in the middle period of life, has a reputation as an artist extending from Europe to Hawaii, for even in this little community his paintings will be found in the residences of men who are admirers of art for art's sake.

Some years ago W. M. Giffard visited Mr. Fisher's studio in San Francisco and made a selection of his, at that time, recent paintings, and brought them here. Since then there has been a desire in the breasts of other people here to possess them without having to go to San Francisco to secure them.
Through some of the people who have seen his paintings Mr. Fisher was induced to come here and exhibit his pictures and make sketches and paintings of scenery around the Islands.

Considering that the city had but recently been deluged with the work of that prince of romancers, W. H. Hillard, the undertaking was rather great, but the people who sent the request knew the work of both artists and were confident of the success of Mr. Fisher.
The artist's handling of the various subjects differs in many respects from that of most artists; his technique, his perfect knowledge of colors and ability to place them effectively has given Mr.
Fisher a reputation which comes only to men whose everyday toll is performed conscientiously.

Of the sixty-three pictures in the exhibition by Mr. Fisher but three are in oil, the largest, No. 57, being a view of the Merced River, in the grand valley of the Yosemite. This view is from the bank of the river and facing two of the famous peaks there, and from the cloud-tipped summit of one the river gushes forth in a magnificent waterfall, disappearing again behind a foothill and hidden from view until it appears again flowing around a tree-sheltered bend, and widening out until it becomes a transparent lake. Focus the picture with your hand and the entire scene is before you in magnificent grandeur and lifelike effect. There is nothing lost in the picture, and the atmospheric effect is attained in such a capital manner that the painting may be described as one marvelously true to nature.

Another oil that will attract the attention of the visitor is No. 56, a scene on the American River, more weird than the other, and one that is suggestive of fine sport with rod and gun.
On the left bank of the river a number of dead trees stand sentinel-like, while in the background stand the giant mountains which make the strong points in the painting. It is full of action, is this picture, and with a stretch of imagination one can hear the water going over the falls.

To say that Artist Fisher's works in oil are superior to those he has painted in water colors would be wrong. If there is a difference it is in the strength of the colors. His methods in water color are different from those of the average artist, and it is in the difference in the handling that one might with some degree of truth decide that his No. 56 in the exhibition, "Twilight in California," is superior to the scene on the American River. The public has been educated to expect in water color sketches a flat illustration of the painter's idea of the subject, a boldness of execution and quantity of laying in by washes without regard to detail. In this class of paintings the purchaser is left to supply what is lacking in detail, and to do this his art gallery must be a larger room than is found in Honolulu built houses. Mr. Fisher's paintings are effective without sacrificing technique; his paintings bear close inspection at arm's length, nor do they lose in effect when hung at a distance. Take his No.
54, a winter scene representing a flock of sheep being driven home through a snow storm. The closest examination only reveals to the student that it has been done in water colors; its strength and the magnificence of the handling conceal the fact. The first of the sheep, snow-covered, are so well depicted that

No. 54 is lost to memory by an entire ange glow as a remembrance of the glory of the day. On the horizon, but dimmed by distance, are some farm houses, and on the left middle fore-

HEALTH BOARD DOES BUSINESS.

Dr. Weddick of Kawaihau, Kauai, Resigns.

TENDERS FOR SUPPLIES CLOSED.

Most of the Time of the Session Taken up in Informal Discussion—Letters From W. O. Smith Read by Minister Cooper—Petition From Lepets.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Board of Health yesterday afternoon, there were present President Emerson, Minister Cooper, Drs. Day and Monsarrat, Messrs. Lansing, Reynolds and Kellipio.

Dr. Monsarrat's report showed all the cattle received from three places on this island affected with fluke liver.

Fish Inspector Kellipio's report showed 50,206 fish received during the week ending June 21st. Of this number 500 were condemned.

A communication from Dr. Weddick, Government physician at Kawaihau, Hanalei, on the island of Kauai, asked that his resignation be accepted in order to allow him to fill a post at Ewa.
Resignation accepted.

It seems that "they are after" Jack McVeigh's scalp. Another application for his position was received from H.
S. Padgett. Placed on file.

A petition signed by about 150 prominent residents of Kona, asking that Dr.
Lindley be retained as Government physician in his old position, was read.
Action on petition deferred.

The matter of charges against C. T.
Akana was postponed.

A petition from several lepers in the jail at Kalaupapa asked that they be pardoned. This was addressed to the Executive at first, but was presented to the Board of Health for suitable information. Referred to Mr. Meyer for a speedy reply.

The various tenders for supplies, thirty-nine in number, for the leper settlement were opened and placed on file for consideration at a special meeting to be held at 4 p. m. Friday.

Minister Cooper read letters from W.
O. Smith, the substance of which has already been published in the columns of this paper.

Inspector Kellipio spoke of complaint on the part of some people regarding fish that have been kept on ice and then sold on the market. He wanted signs to be put up instructing people that such and such was iced fish. This being merely a matter of detail, Mr. Kellipio was given permission to do what he asked.

KAMEHAMEHA CLASS DAY.

Interesting Exercises at That Institution Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday was one replete with interest for Kamehameha students and parents and friends having the welfare of that institution at heart.

The Class Day exercises of the class of '96, including the normal class, took place in the afternoon in the presence of a number of interested guests. One of the main features of the program was the planting of a class tree, in which all the members of the class of '96 took part. President Dole was present and delivered a short address to the graduates on matters of particular interest to them, giving good advice and wishing them God speed in their future work. Mrs. Dole was another of the prominent guests.

After the exercises autographs were exchanged as a reminder in times to come, of the pleasant days spent at Kamehameha.

In the evening the Preparatory school boys presented a very interesting program in the gymnasium. There were present four or five hundred people.

Now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against an attack of bowel complaint during the summer months. It costs but 25 cents and is almost sure to be needed before the summer is over. This remedy never fails, even in the most severe cases, and is in fact the only preparation that can always be depended upon.
When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by all druggists and dealers, Benson, Smith & Co.,

What Is PURIFINE?

It is the new disinfectant which has superseded all other disinfectants, being a scientific compound, having no odor, yet possessing the qualities of a powerful disinfectant.

The automatic distributor should be placed in every house in Honolulu where odors and germs of disease exist. They are placed free of charge, taken care of and kept working day and night for $1.00 per month. It's an innovation, but on scientific principles, and appeals to everyone of common sense.

The idea is this: The distributor drops two drops a minute, day and night. Foul odors are killed, yet no disagreeable smell of carbolic acid or crude disinfectants takes its place. You don't know that a powerful disinfectant is being used if you judge by the lack of odor.
But it's doing the duty—doing it well. Can we show you the "Ideal Automatic Distributor"? Our Mr.
Washburn will call, if you'll tele-
